PASTOR'S CORNER

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. As we profess in our Creed, we believe in one God, the Father almighty, in Jesus Christ his only begotten Son, and in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life. One God in three persons, in perfect, right relationship with one another.

The three Scripture texts for this weekend give us insight into that Triune God and demonstrate some of how they relate to us: the Wisdom of God, the human and divine natures of Jesus through whom we have peace with God, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds from them both and is the Spirit of truth. In the totality of Scripture, we can see the hand of our Triune God as He loves and cares for us.

As rational beings we want to fully understand things, and from a theological standpoint the doctrine of the Trinity can be difficult to grasp. But having faith in and being in relationship with a Triune God need not be; for God is a God for us. He created us in His image, dwelt among us, and remains with us in truth and as our strength and guidance. Everything He does, He does for us. How could we not respond in kind to such a love?

So, as we celebrate this doctrine of our faith, let us give thanks for the mystery of our redemption by God, through Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. Let us give thanks for this divine outpouring of pure gift for our sake. And may we respond in glorifying God by living in the right relationship with Him and one another.

us give thanks for this divine outpouring of pure gift for our sake. And may we respond in glorifying God by living in the right relationship with Him and one another.

God bless you, Fr. Stan.

PARISH NEWS

I had an article somewhere about a holy man named Fernando ... Oh! Here it is!

Fernando was born in Lisbon, Portugal in 1195. At 15, he entered an Augustinian monastery. Prayer and study were not very possible since friends often dropped by and engaged in a lot of political rhetoric. He found this very distracting ... hard to imagine.

He entered the Franciscans and took the name of Anthony. A genuine example of living the gospel, he moved many to deeper conversion. Anthony was assigned to Padua, Italy.

One day, a disgruntled friar novice left the order taking Anthony's prayer book with him, which had important notes from Anthony in the margin. Anthony prayed for its safe return, and it was returned. Anthony, of course, is a powerful intercessor for lost and stolen items.

Monday June 13th - St Anthony of Padua priest and Doctor of the Church.
