PASTOR'S NOTES

'And they will put some of you to death.... but not a hair on your head will be destroyed.' If the disciples were not confused before, they certainly were after this exchange with Jesus. In one breath He is talking about all sorts of really scary stuff – earthquakes, famines, plagues, persecutions, imprisonments and even death; and in the other breath He is assuring us that we will be fine, that we will be ok, that 'by your perseverance you will secure your lives'.

The apparent conflicting statements of Jesus aren't really conflicting at all. When Jesus makes those two statements, he's almost certainly talking about two very different things: the little picture and the big picture.

It's hard to go through life with our eyes, hearts and minds fixed on the big picture. Often it is whatever is right in front of us, whatever we are experiencing at that very moment, that gets our attention. And when the challenge we are facing is great, when we are in great pain; physically, emotionally, spiritually; it can be hard to remember and believe and trust that most of the things of this world are passing away, that our troubles will never win, that our crosses will never get the best of us. It is difficult at times to accept the promise of Jesus that 'not a hair on your head will be destroyed'.

This is the great paradox of our faith: that despite our suffering; love, goodness, beauty, and life win. No, that's incorrect, for it's not always despite our sufferings that good things can grow and blossom. No, it is precisely through our pain and disappointment and sorrow that God brings about a newness of life; a fullness of life; a life in, with, and for God that enriches our time on this earth and continues on into eternity. In ways we might not always understand; the most meaningful Easters often come about through the most difficult Good Fridays.

And so, as we face life challenges, let us strive to do what the Lord Jesus encourages us to do: persevere in the face of it all. And not blindly, not with our spirits consumed by pain or sorrow, not with a kind of hopelessness that promises nothing, but with our eyes clearly and faithfully fixed on the big picture: God's incredible love and compassion for us and His promise of life with Him for all eternity.

God bless you, Fr. Stan

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

November is designated as the Month of Remembrance of Holy Souls. Each year St. Elizabeth Parish remembers those members of our community who have gone to their eternal rest during the past year.

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. - 1 John 5:14

THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

Come and join us during adoration of the Blessed Sacrament to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00 pm on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 13 – 14 – 15. Bring a prayerful heart and your rosary beads. Promise from Jesus:

“Say unceasingly this chaplet that I have taught you. Anyone who says it will receive great Mercy at the hour of death. Priests will recommend it to sinners as the last hope. Even the most hardened sinner, if he recites this Chaplet even once, will receive grace from My Infinite Mercy. I want the whole world to know My Infinite Mercy. I want to give unimaginable graces to those who trust in My Mercy....” “... When they say this Chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person not as the just judge but as the Merciful Savior”.

Celebrating our PREP Catechist and Teacher Aides This week:

PREP – Kindergarten Catechist: Mrs. Kelly Smith

Hi! My name is Mrs. Kelly Smith, I live in Whitehall with my husband, two sons and our yorkie, Rusty. One son is in 7th grade, and one is in 4th grade. I have been volunteering in the PREP program for eight years and teaching kindergarten for four years. It's important to teach the students about their faith at a young age. Being a part of their faith's journey brings me great joy. I strive to teach the children about their Catholic faith in a fun and enjoyable way. I look forward to another PREP year!
