WRITINGS FROM DEACON

In the readings today, we encounter the need to be persistent in prayer. We also see the scope of God's justice with forbearance, mercy and forgiveness as component to how He deals with us and cares for us. There had been great outcry about the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. While Abraham's visitors continued to walk toward these cities, Abraham stopped to speak with the Lord. "Will you sweep away the innocent with the guilty? Suppose there were fifty innocent people in the city; would you wipe out the place, rather than spare it for the sake of the fifty innocent people within it?..."

The Lord replied, "If I find fifty innocent people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

We can continue to appeal to God for His judgement. We should be persistent in our prayer for the needs of others.
