ST. ELIZABETH CHURCH HISTORY

This year we will highlight a Saint depicted on our stained-glass window each month. In November we have our patron St. Elizabeth of Hungary. An informational pamphlet was placed on his window shelf. The information will also be posted to the church website under Parish History for those interested.

WRITINGS FROM DEACON

In John's gospel, Jesus' behavior in tipping over tables, dismissing vendors and animals reminded the disciples of a verse from scripture (Psalm 69), "Zeal for your house will consume me." As the Jews challenged Jesus on the authority of his actions, Jesus, spoke of the temple of his own body. In the second reading, Paul specifies that we are built on the foundation of Jesus Christ himself. Do you realize that you are the temple of God? The Spirit dwells within you. Does zeal for the house of God consume you?

It is important to be conscientious about the physical, spiritual, intellectual and emotional wellbeing of this particular temple which we are in custody of here and now with attention to the hereafter. In the reading from Ezekiel, water trickling and flowing from the foundation sounds ominous. This water brings renewal, healing and life.

Endowment for Care of Retired Priests

When a Diocesan priest is ordained, he makes a lifelong commitment to serve the needs of the faithful in the Diocese of Allentown. In return, the Diocese makes a commitment to the priest to provide for his basic well-being during his lifetime, including retirement. The normal retirement age for a priest in our Diocese is 75.

Retirement costs including insurance, healthcare, prescription drugs, skilled nursing care, and housing and sustenance continue to escalate. At present, approximately one-third of Diocesan priests are retired. The Diocese of Allentown currently pays for the retirement needs of priests through the Because We are Catholic Annual Appeal and the Diocesan operating budget. Due to the ever-increasing costs of care, which now exceed $2.7 million per year, the Diocese has created this Endowment Fund as an additional source of funding to cover these expenses in the future.
