*NOTE: Please call church if you are admitted to the hospital. Names will be removed after three months and may be resubmitted at that time.

TO THOSE WITH HEALTH CONCERNS

We welcome you to Mass each weekend. If you wish to receive Holy Communion and find it difficult to join the Communion line, please let the ushers know and an Extraordinary Minister will bring communion to you. Low gluten hosts are available; prior to Mass go to the sacristy so the celebrant will know to prepare the host. A priority seating chart is available; please ask an usher for seating options. Call our parish office at 610-266-0695. Emergency and need a priest? After hours use ext. 399 for the emergency mailbox.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Corpus Christi marks the end of the Year of the Real Presence. Bishop Schlert will celebrate at Most Sacred Sacrament in Bally, the oldest church (founded 1741) in the diocese. All are welcome to attend, June 19th at 3 pm.

At St. Elizabeth we will celebrate with a procession around the church and benediction. Please join us.

SIGN OF PEACE

Bishop Schlert has directed that the Sign of Peace be reintroduced in the manner indicated by Liturgical norms. Fr. Stan would like all parishioners to remain cautious and asks that you refrain from shaking hands unless you know the person. A nod of the head and a smile is an acceptable exchange.

OFFICE SUMMER HOURS

During the summer the parish office will be open from 9 am to 3 pm Monday through Thursday. We will be closed Friday starting Friday, June 17th.

The school office will be open this summer from 9 am to 12 noon Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday or by appointment starting Tuesday June 14th. Mrs. Kocher can be reached any time at principal@sercc.org

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ...Corpus Christi... a day on which we give thanks to God for the very gift of His very self. Our Lord comes to us as real food for the journey, real nourishment. For Catholics, this is at the very heart of who we are as a faith community. And if I asked each of you what the meaning of Eucharist is, or what is important about it, or what is its 'purpose', I would probably get a whole bunch of different, although somewhat similar answers.

Some might say, 'It's all about God wanting to be close to us. Others, 'To give us strength and comfort for our journey as disciples'. Some might say 'It's THE most perfect blessing God can give us.' Others 'It's so that we can be filled with His grace'.

All of these are true, but one particular sentiment that is essential to our understanding of this sacred meal as Catholics is this: Eucharist is food for us, so that we can be food for others. Our reception of this sacrament is not the end of this holy experience. It is only the beginning, only the stepping-off point to a life lived not for ourselves, but for others. As Catholics, we receive the Body of Christ in order to be the Body of Christ, not simply in the privacy of our rooms, or in this church, but in the world.

And so, when we hear the Lord telling his apostles, 'Give them some food yourselves', we must also hear Him saying those same words directly to each of us... in this time and place... urging us to give others the food that He gives us. Put simply, God feeds us with the most precious food there is... His very self... and invites us to feed others with that same food, the food of kindness, mercy, generosity, compassion, love. That's the food the world is in desperate need of. That's the food we receive at this sacred table.

Yet, like the apostles, we often think we don't have enough, don't have what it takes to do what the Lord Jesus is asking us to do. 'But Jesus, 5 loaves and 2 fish are all I have. I don't have enough patience, I don't have enough humility, I don't have enough compassion, I don't have enough forgiveness, I don't have enough love.'

On our own, we don't have enough. That much is true. But we are not alone. God can do so much with little (even with sinful me and with sinful you), making the impossible, possible. He feeds us so that we can feed others. He shares his life with us so that we can share our life with others. And He pours out his life for us and into us so that we, in turn, can pour out our lives on behalf of each person who needs a little help, a little kindness, a little comfort, a little forgiveness, a little love.

God bless you, Fr. Stan.

PARISH NEWS

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

Fathers are wonderful people
 Too little understood,
 And we do not sing their praises
 As often as we should...
 But FATHERS are just wonderful
 In a million different ways,
 And they merit loving compliments
 And accolade of praise,
 For the only reason Dad aspires
 To fortune and success
 Is to make the family proud of him
 And to bring them HAPPINESS...
 And like our Heavenly Father,
 He's a guardian and a guide,
 Someone that we can count on
 To be always on our side.

Happy Fathers Day
