PASTOR'S CORNER

Alex Haley, author of the novel Roots, said he had in his office a picture of a turtle sitting on a fencepost. He said when he looked at it he remembers a lesson taught to him by a friend who said; "if you see a turtle sitting on top of a fencepost, you know he didn't get there by himself, he had some help getting there." Haley said, "Anytime I start thinking 'isn't it wonderful the things I've done,' I look at the picture of this turtle and I see myself and I remember, I didn't get where I am without a lot of help from others."

This story is a good image of humility, recognizing the worth and the talents and accomplishments that we can lay claim to, without forgetting the help and the gifts that have been given to us.

The way to gain humility is through prayer. When we fail to pray, we are acting as if we think we can handle things ourselves. When we pray, we are practicing or learning humility because we are reaching out to another (God) to whom we owe all we have.

Then there are parents, friends, relatives, neighbors, co-workers, even people who drive us crazy who have helped to form us and make us who we are. Humility makes us aware that we are not the center of the universe, but one small piece of it. That's where the last section of today's gospel comes in. Aware of how many people have helped us, how can we not reach out to help those who have not been as blessed as we have. Jesus doesn't mean that we should not invite our friends and relatives to dinner, he just does not want us to forget those who do not have the means to invite us in return. That is humility.

To remember our need for humility and to avoid excessive pride, remember that image of the turtle on the fencepost and be grateful to God and to the people who brought you to where you are.

God bless you, Fr. Stan

DEACON'S THOUGHTS

Summer season is pretty much winding down. The big agricultural show is coming up. Vacations are substantially concluded. It is time to resume the typical routines. Colleges are gathering students and faculty. High schools have started their football seasons. By now, most of the stationery supplies have essentially been picked clean in the stores.

Consider this all to be a new beginning. Here is an opportunity to engage life with renewed energy and enthusiasm. Look to the Lord to provide strength and encouragement. Seek Him in all things...for He is there. By way of renewal, this is also a perfect time to take out one of your brand-new sharp No.2 pencils and take an examination of conscience. It is a perfect time to review and strengthen our resolve to walk with Him and in Him in all things, in academics and in labor. Take some time to go to confession to release the burden and baggage that we are so willing to drag along behind us and allow to hold us back. We are invited to be renewed with that energy which is grace to move forward with power and commitment. We need only to accept that invitation and embrace that gift which is His grace.

Q.) How often does the choir sing? I'm considering joining but am wondering about the time commitment.

A.) We sing at 10 am Mass & Holy Days of obligation from mid-Sept to mid-June, with rehearsals on Wed nights, 7 - 8:30, and some additional events & rehearsals, such as 40 Hrs. Ideally, to be involved you would commit to all rehearsals & masses, but realistically, commitment differs depending on work life, family life, etc. Have a talk with Patrick (our choir director) and we'll figure out a time that works for you.

Have a music question? Email music director Patrick Oswald: patoswald96@yahoo.com

RCIA CLASS

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

This is a process for welcoming new members into the Catholic Church.

- Not Baptized
- Baptized in another Christian faith and interested in learning more about being Catholic.
- Baptized Catholic but never received First Eucharist or Confirmation.

WHAT IS RCIA?

RCIA is a result of Vatican II, which called for a 'revival of the Adult Catechumenate'. This goes back to the early traditions of the Church where the Apostles welcomed newcomers. RCIA is the way our Catholic communities throughout the world teach the faithful about the Catholic Church.

Note: Four out of five individuals who investigate the Catholic community do so because friends, relatives or neighbors extend personal invitations. Spread the good news and invite someone! INTERESTED? in learning more about your own faith. Join the RCIA team as a sponsor! IF YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS READY TO EXPLORE THE CATHOLIC FAITH, PLEASE HAVE THEM CALL THE PARISH OFFICE AT 610-266-0695 ext. 208.
