FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Some things in life are simply counterintuitive. Take the bicycle seat for example. One would think that the more padded the seat is the more comfortable the bicycle ride is going to be. This is often not the case, however. If you ride mostly on the road, then your best option for a saddle (that's what I'm told is the preferred term) is a firm one or even a hard leather one that you've broken in after riding on it for a while. Seems crazy right?

As it turns out, we all have ischial tuberosity (commonly known as sit bones). These are points on our hip bone that can hold our weight. For us to be comfortable these bones need to be resting on a firm surface. A heavily padded seat will merely have us shifting about as we ride. The result is that our weight is placed on our flesh and not on our bones, which makes us sore. While a lot of padding can cushion the bumps along the way, it will cause us to be sore after a long ride.

The same is true for oxen and their yokes. A yoke is a heavy piece of wood laid on the shoulders of an ox. If improperly placed or made, it can be very painful and burdensome. But because of the yoke, the ox can pull the weight of the cart behind it more easily. What appears to be a burden is actually a help.

Yet, what is true about bicycle seats is true about the yokes one takes on in life - softer is not always easier. Remember, when Jesus says my yoke is easy, he means it is well-fitted, not trite, or inconsequential. Jesus' yoke or his commands is easy or well fitted because it is based on love. It's not that the burden we carry isn't real or wearisome, but the burden we carry is to be carried in love and this makes the heaviest burdens light. We only need to look at Jesus on the cross to realize the burden of love.

Our burdens and trials and pain are real, but so is the covenant of love that Jesus gives us today and every day of our life. We only need to open ourselves to His grace and His love. As oxen are often paired under this wooden yoke, imagine that the burden you have is being shared by your partner, Jesus Christ. Jesus will sustain us and support us in all our trials, until the time when we find our ultimate rest, our ultimate comfort, when we rest in the glory of God forever.

God bless you. Fr. Stan.

LITURGICAL COLORS

The Colors of the Liturgical Seasons: Do you know the colors of the liturgical seasons and their significance?

White is used during Christmas Time & Easter Time, and on major celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, and of many Saints; it is the color of celebration, joy, and purity. Gold may also be used on more solemn occasions.

Red is used on Palm Sunday, Good Friday, Pentecost Sunday and the feasts of the apostles, evangelists, and martyrs. It is the color of sacrifice, blood, and fire.

Green, the color of Ordinary Time, expresses hope, life, and growth.

Violet (or purple) expresses penance and mourning. It is used during Advent & Lent and may also be used at Masses for the Dead.

Rose (or pink) may be used in place of violet on the third Sunday of Advent and the fourth Sunday of Lent. It expresses anticipation and joyful expectation.

RCIA CLASS

Have you or someone you know ever considered the Catholic Church as a means of continuing your journey of faith? Did you know that four out of five individuals who investigate the Catholic community do so because friends, relatives, or neighbors extended a personal invitation? We challenge you to ask just one person you know and see what happens!

There are quite a few great folks who attend weekly Mass with their families or friends but are not participating fully in the beautiful sacramental tradition of our faith. Many such people already share Baptism in common with us having received it within another Christian denomination. Some who have never been baptized often ponder the exciting possibility of experiencing the reality and unique ritual of birth in the living waters of life. This September, a new RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation) class will be forming. The initial phase requires no commitment and is designed specifically for general information as well as discernment. For information, please call Mary Spieker 610 – 266 - 0695 ext. 208.

The Mission is that through prayer, peaceful presence, and fasting we may be God's instruments in the salvation of souls, so that innocent lives will be saved. ## Visit the Wreaths across America Mobile Education Exhibit

The Wreaths Across America Mobile Education Exhibit is a rolling exhibition that brings the local community, veterans, active-duty military, and their families together through interactive exhibits, short films, and shared stories. The exhibit serves as a mobile museum, educating about service and sacrifice of our nation's heroes as well as to serve as an official 'welcome home' station for our Vietnam Veterans. All are invited to visit, take a tour, and speak with a WAA representative and volunteers. They will share more about the national nonprofit, and the work its volunteers do to support our heroes and their communities year-round. Public tours for the MEE are free and open to all.
