FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In our relationship with God, we want and expect to have experiences of God that are unmistakable, dramatic, outstanding and obvious. Elijah, in today's first reading from the first Book of Kings, seems to have been just such a person from what we can tell. God tells Elijah to get ready because He will be passing by. Most likely Elijah was pretty certain that, if God was going to come to him, He would do so as in the past, as in the stories of old - in powerful, loud, exciting acts of nature or through some dramatic gesture. Yet, had he not been prompted by God in the first place, he never would have been ready to encounter Him in something so gentle, so benign, so ordinary as a tiny whisper; a tiny breath of air outside the entrance to the cave. Elijah expected God to come to him in one way. And God surprised him by choosing another.

I don't have to tell you that the vast majority of our life experiences are 'ordinary'. Much of life involves doing the same thing over and over again. And none of that is a bad thing. It's called life. And yet, unfortunately, it's easy to not think much about God during most of that. And it's even more difficult to be prepared to encounter God - to actually have and experience of Him - as we go about these 'ordinary' things.

The 'dramatic' experiences are easy. Most of us go into them fully expecting to have an experience of God, fully expecting to feel close to God, fully expecting to know something holy was happening. The day you got engaged, the day you got married, the day your children were born, the day you got the big promotion - these are times when it is easy to feel God's presence. It is why retreats can be such powerful things. I know they have been for me. We go on retreat fully expecting to have an experience of God, and we are rarely disappointed. Years later, people talk about retreats as special moments, when they felt incredibly close to God. And that is a beautiful thing.

And yet, God isn't simply just on retreat with you and me. Nor is he just there in engagements or the birth of a child. He's also there at the family movie night when you're curled up on the couch with the kids. He's in our visits to our elderly parents at the Senior Living Center. He's at the countless athletic events we find ourselves at. He's even with us when we grocery shop or when we are painting a bedroom or stuck in traffic or whenever or in whatever.

God is in all those things, all those whispers, that can pass by undetected if we don't pay attention, if we're not expecting it - expecting God.

And while most of us live lives that can hardly be described as exciting, what we're really talking about are the 'externals' of our lives. And yet, what makes faith 'exciting', what makes life 'exciting' are not the things that happen to us from the 'outside', but rather because of what God can do to us on the 'inside'. The changes only He can make in our hearts and souls and minds - so that we are able to find meaning and purpose and goodness and hope in the 'everydayness' of life. In other words, being able to find God everywhere we look is what is truly exciting, is life changing, and is everything but 'boring'.

But it takes faith. It takes paying attention. It takes expecting to find God and experiencing Him not simply once in a while, but every second of every day, in every whisper that calls out to us.

God bless you, Fr. Stan

LIVING...as Disciples

MINISTRY

14TH ANNUAL BASKET SOCIAL IS LESS THAN 2 MONTHS AWAY!

We are always looking for some new and gently used baskets! Be on the look-out during your travels to and from summer yard sales. If you come across a great summer bargain, just think what a great theme basket it will make! This benefit enhances the Religious Education programs throughout our parish. Volunteers are always welcome to help make our social fun and successful. If you have any questions or would like to help, please contact Mary Spieker at the parish office – 610-266-0695 ext. 208. Thanks for your tremendous support!

RCIA

Have you or someone you know ever considered the Catholic Church as a means of continuing your journey of faith? Did you know that four out of five individuals who investigate the Catholic community do so because friends, relatives, or neighbors extended a personal invitation? We challenge you to ask just one person you know and see what happens!

There are quite a few great folks who attend weekly Mass with their families or friends but are not participating fully in the beautiful sacramental tradition of our faith. Many such people already share Baptism in common with us having received it within another Christian denomination. Some who have never been baptized often ponder the exciting possibility of experiencing the reality and unique ritual of birth in the living waters of life. This September, a new RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation) class will be forming. The initial phase requires no commitment and is designed specifically for general information as well as discernment. For information, please call Mary Spieker at the parish office – 610-266-0695 ext. 208 or email at dirreled@sercc.org.

Stan has given me permission for my project, for this prestigious honor, to refloor the large parish meeting room on the 2nd floor. This weekend, as part of my project, I will be collecting donations for this undertaking. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION

Assumption of Mary – August 15

We will have Masses for the Assumption of Mary this week.

Monday evening Vigil at 6:30 pm - Tuesday morning at 9:00 am and afternoon 12:15 pm
The Assumption is the oldest feast day of Our Lady, but we don't know how it first came to be celebrated. Its origin is lost in those days when Jerusalem was restored as a sacred city, at the time of the Roman Emperor Constantine (c. 285-337). The Assumption completes God's work in her since it was not fitting that the flesh that had given life to God himself should ever undergo corruption. The Assumption is God's crowning of His work as Mary ends her earthly life and enters eternity. The feast turns our eyes in that direction, where we will follow when our earthly life is over.
