FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

'Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.' This is one of the most well-known verses in Scripture. Although it might appear that Jesus is trying to instruct the Pharisees and their followers on lawfulness, it seems that this is one more instance of Jesus taking a question ('Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?') and answering it in a way to reveal a deeper truth. He takes a question about what is owed to Caesar and responds with an answer about what is owed to God.

Jesus was not angry at the Pharisees for trying to entrap Him (although He does call them hypocrites). He gives them this answer because they were so fixated on every little aspect of the law, fixated on the 'practice of religion' rather than on faithful living.

Jesus is asking us if we too, are overly focused on small moral decisions while failing to consider our over-arching call to be loving, generous, merciful, compassionate, and forgiving. Do we give God what is God's (that is our 'whole self'), or do we give something less? Is God, in our sight at all times, in our minds every moment, in our hearts in good times and bad, or do the things of the world have most of our attention?

Our lives may depend on how we answer that question. Remember, 'give to God, what belongs to God.'

God bless you, Fr. Stan
