FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Faith can sometimes be viewed as complicated, especially regarding to our rich Catholic faith. There is systematic theology where we come to understand the great gift of our sacraments and all the tenants of the faith which we profess in the Creed. There are over 2000 years of history; saints, councils, heresies, and reforms. We have all sorts of prayers, litanies, countless numbers of devotions, and the rosary. We have different liturgical seasons and liturgies to go with them. There is church or canon law and moral theology giving us the foundation of forming a good conscience. Then there is the formal structure and hierarchy of the church. There are dozens of parish ministries, events, charitable groups, and fundraisers. So, you might say that if anything in this world can be complicated, faith is it.

The Pharisees certainly felt that way. Part of being a good Jew in the time of Jesus was doing all sorts of things in a precise prescribed way. And many Jewish people would diligently and faithfully strive to live out and obey the 600 plus laws that were 'on the books', so-to-speak. This was a pretty complicated way to go about one's daily life.

In today's Gospel, Jesus' answer to their question of which of the many laws was the greatest ... was about Him trying to get them to see the elaborate system of rules they had devised was not the core of what it meant to live a life of faith - to be "faith-ful". No; the rules, laws and customs were not supposed to be proof that faith was complicated, but rather existed to support a simple, basic idea.... a principle that was at the heart of being faithful to God. Love.

That's it, four little letters. L-o-v-e.

The whole law was built on love - the two truths. Love God and love your neighbor. Adherence to the rules and regulations isn't necessarily what is pleasing to God. Love is what ultimately pleases God. Love is at the heart of true faithfulness. Love is the essence of who God is. If we ever start doing things for any other reason than love - we are doing something wrong. We are straying from the path. We are falling short of living the beautiful God-centered life He so desperately wants for us.

And so, being a Christian, a faithful disciple does not mean we have to first master and comprehend an in-depth knowledge and practice of our Catholic faith- not that these things can't be helpful. But every single person can embrace the fullness of the Christian faith right now, in this moment, in this time and place. We don't need a lifetime to get 'good' at it to be a superstar in our faith.

It's not that complicated. Challenging? Yes. Difficult? At times.

Faith expresses itself in love. Nothing more, nothing less. Jesus wanted to make sure the Pharisees knew that. And He wants us to know it too.

God bless you, Fr. Stan

St. Charles Borromeo is Moving

St Charles is embarking on a truly inspiring and exciting time. The Seminary's continued vitality has led to a new chapter, the construction of a new home in Lower Gwynedd Twsp. The relocation is a source of hope, as the mission to form priests who will be servant leaders after the Heart of Jesus Christ continues. Preparing for the transition is a significant undertaking and we will be taking a second collection on Nov 4-5 to support the work for St. Charles relocation.

Helpers of God's Precious Infants

Saturday November 11th, please join us at a Prayer Pilgrimage for the unborn and all those involved in abortion. The pilgrimage begins with Mass at 8 am at Notre Dame Church, 1861 Catasauqua Rd., Bethlehem and continues with The Rosary at the Allentown Women's Center located at 31 S. Commerce Way, Bethlehem Industrial Park. The Mission is that through prayer, peaceful presence, and fasting we may be God's instruments in the salvation of souls, so that innocent lives will be saved. Be part of the call to bring God's everlasting, unconditional love to those involved in abortion so that their hearts may be converted and receive God's gift of life with joy.

MICHAEL St. Michael the Archangel, Defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
