FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Today we begin Advent, the first season of the new church year. We are once again asked to get ready for the coming of the Lord. In one respect, we are invited to look back 2000 years, the moment when God broke into our world in the person of Jesus. We look forward to once again celebrating the greatest event that mankind has ever seen, the miraculous birth of our Savior and our God as a human person.

During Advent, we are also asked to prepare ourselves for the coming of the Lord at the end of time ... the day when Jesus will return in glory to judge the living and the dead. And of course, that day, that time is completely unknown to us. We are told to be watchful and alert, lest He find us asleep.

Advent is a holy season which we look back and look forward to at the same time but that is not the whole picture either. Looking forward is also about preparing for something that is already happening. It's about getting ready for something that is occurring right now. To be watchful and alert for something that is unfolding in this very time and place.

Advent is about preparing to meet our God who is already in our midst, already among us, already meeting us over and over again. Do we notice? Can we see Him? Do we believe we are encountering Him all the time in situations and circumstances, in friends and enemies, and even within ourselves?

It takes faith to believe God is all around us and within us. A big part of Advent is preparing our hearts to receive Him and give birth to Him in new ways. Advent is also about preparing our minds to be illuminated by Him so we can think through some difficulties and challenges of life with wisdom, compassion and understanding. It's about preparing our eyes to see as God sees - so that we will be able to find Him in each person.

May this holy season help us to do precisely that.
Be watchful! Be alert! Have a blessed Advent.

God bless you, Fr. Stan

INTENTIONS

The Sanctuary Candle burns this week for Raymond and Shirley Casari requested by Tracy Casari.

ADVENT

Advent is the period of preparation for the coming of the birth of Jesus at Christmas and a preparation for the second coming of Christ. On each of the four Sundays in Advent, a candle on the Advent wreath is lit, each representing specific virtues of hope, love, joy, and peace.

The first candle, which is purple, symbolizes hope. It is sometimes called the "Prophecy Candle" in remembrance of the prophets, especially Isaiah, who foretold the birth of Christ. It represents the expectation felt in anticipation of the coming Messiah.
