FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Nelson Mandela once said 'We were born to manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just some of us, it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.'

It doesn't matter what vocation or what talents we receive, all of us are called to nurture that light of Christ in us and in others. We are all called to share our time and talent and to do so to build up God's kingdom on earth.

In our first reading the 'good wife' is a wonderful example of putting into practice the gospel message. This woman was considerably gifted and used her gifts for her family, her community and for the poor. The point of the story is not to exalt the fact that she is so gifted. The reading says, 'Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised'. This woman wasn't remembered for her charm or looks but rather the works that she did that gave God praises. Fear of the Lord refers to holy fear or awe of God's goodness and so we manifest that by living lives of gratitude and hope.

St. Paul in his letter to the Thessalonians gives us the sense of urgency we need to hear about our time here on Earth. He says that you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. The servants in the gospel who received the two and three talents went immediately and doubled their investment. We need to act immediately with our gifts, for we don't know how many missed opportunities will come our way.

God has given us many natural gifts like intelligence, creativity, athleticism, artistry, imagination and so on that we use in our individual vocation in life. God has also given us the supernatural gifts of faith, hope and charity that we use for our vocation as children of God.

Take time to really examine your life. If you are already nurturing your God-given abilities for the glory of God and the love of neighbor, continue to do so. But if you've been holding back, it's time to get out your shovels and spade and recover those treasures, generously given to you by God, that lie buried. Don't be afraid to reveal and share the riches that God has bestowed on each and every one of us.

God bless you, Fr. Stan
