FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Today we continue our Advent journey. And as always, John the Baptist makes his appearance - the voice crying out in the desert, foretold by Isaiah (as we heard in the 1st Reading). We see John challenging people to be more than they are. We see him convincing people to take an honest look within and reform their lives. And we see him making sure they know that it's not about him. Rather, 'One mightier than I, is coming after me'.

We've all had John the Baptists in our lives, who have helped us be better people, who have helped us have the right priorities, have pointed us in the right direction, and have helped us to believe. That is one of the incredible things about faith. Although we believe that faith is a pure gift from God, He doesn't choose to give that gift by himself. Rather, He wants us to deliver it for Him (like the FedEx or UPS person) - making delivery after delivery - leaving a little bit of kindness, mercy, love, hope, joy, peace, and faith wherever we go.

And so, on this second Sunday of Advent, we give thanks to God for John the Baptist, the one who heralded Jesus' coming. And we give thanks to God for all the John the Baptists in our own lives, people who have instilled in us belief in God, a love for God, a faith that has lasted to this very day.

But most importantly, this day is an opportunity for each of us to do what many have done for us - be a voice crying out in the desert - be heralds of God's great love and mercy. And, like John the Baptist, we can help people keep their eyes open for a God in our midst, a God who is present to us, a God who is not absent from the world, but in every corner of it - in every person and every circumstance.

The world needs to hear that message and needs to see people trying their best, to live the light of that truth - peacefully, lovingly, humbly, and faithfully. And that might be the best present we can give this Christmas.

God bless you, Fr. Stan

ADVENT

Advent is the period of preparation for the coming of the birth of Jesus at Christmas and a preparation for the second coming of Christ. On each of the four Sundays in Advent, a candle on the Advent wreath is lit, each representing specific virtues of hope, love, joy, and peace.

The second candle on the Advent wreath represents faith. It is called the 'Bethlehem Candle' as a reminder of Mary and Joseph's journey to Bethlehem.
