FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The prophet Jonah is someone that I can relate to, and probably you can as well. Most of us will never peril during a storm at sea. I doubt that any of us will wind up in the belly of a fish and live to talk about it, and it's extremely unlikely that any of us will be asked by God to march through a city declaring that the city is about to be destroyed by the Almighty. You're probably right in thinking, that is not my life and if it was, I would write a book, sell the rights to the movies, and move to Aruba, or anywhere to get away from the cold and snow. Most of our lives are nowhere near as exciting as Jonah's.

Yet, Jonah may be a lot more like us than we know. And while today's scripture passage contains just the middle part of his incredible story, it's important for us to get the whole picture. You may not remember the whole reason Jonah was on that ship (and eventually overboard). It was because Jonah had ignored God's initial request to go to the town of Nineveh and he ran in the opposite direction from where God was asking him to go.

How many times do we do precisely the same thing? How many times do we turn a deaf ear to God and instead do whatever works for us, whatever is easiest, whatever demands the least from us? Unfortunately, too often when God asks me to go to Nineveh, I simply run the other way.

Jump to the other end of the story, you may or may not remember what happens after Nineveh is spared; how Jonah reacts. At first, Jonah is angry and then he pouts and then he even wishes he was dead! Imagine that. The all-knowing, all-loving, all-powerful God makes a different decision that Jonah would have made, and Jonah can't deal with it.

I can relate to that. At times in my life, I have difficulty dealing with good that comes to others, which of course, like all good things has its ultimate source in God. Why couldn't that happen to me? Why aren't I as lucky as my friends or family members? Why don't others get what they deserve? (as if I have the right to make those judgements). Why do the lives of others seem easier than mine? Where is the fairness? Where is the justice?

Comparisons – Judgements – Bitterness, lack of gratitude. It is all there in the heart of Jonah. Unfortunately, it is often in our hearts too. And yet, despite his initial willingness to run in the other direction, despite his mixed motives and disappointment in the final outcome (an outcome determined by a providential God), good things still happened; God's will was done, even through a flawed person such as Jonah. And that should be a tremendous comfort to us.

God calls us all in separate ways, for one thing, to bring the message of His love to others. Trust in God, cooperate with His call and let Him work even despite our limitations and imperfections. Remember, if you find yourself getting in a boat for all the wrong reasons, you may want to reconsider. God bless you, Fr. Stan

Fr. Stan needs your help! Fr. Visit www.cookswithcollars.com to see your favorite priests from around the Diocese creating delicious kitchen concoctions. ## OLD PALM COLLECTION

You may bring your old palms to church anytime from now to February 4th for us to dispose of properly. The underlying idea is that what has been dedicated to God should be returned to God, in a sense, the same way a person's dead body is committed to the earth. Never should one just “throw out” what has been dedicated to God. The normal “rule of thumb” is that anything that has been blessed should be burned, if possible, (and then the ashes buried) or if not burned simply buried.

PRO-LIFE MASS

The P.R.E.P. program will participate in a Pro-Life Mass on Monday evening January 22nd at 6:15 pm and St. Elizabeth Regional school will participate in a Pro-Life Mass on Wednesday, January 24th at 9 am. Adoration will follow until noon.

STEAK SANDWICH SALE

St. Elizabeth Parish is sponsoring our famous Steak Sandwich Meal on Saturday, February 17th. Steaks are $12.50 each, and Cheese Steaks are $13.50 each. PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, Defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares
of the devil.
May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince
of the heavenly host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan
and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.
