FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Each of us longs to know and love God better. Each of us needs the grace of God in our lives.

Today's readings subtly teach us something important about receiving grace and instruction from God. He must cleanse us; He must make room in our hearts to fill us with His grace.

We notice in today's first reading that before God gave the Israelites the Ten Commandments, (writing His law on their hearts), He had to get them out of Egypt. He had to free them so that they could be free to love and serve Him. In today's Gospel, Jesus cleanses the temple, making a whip out of cords and overturning tables before teaching and prophesizing about His glorious resurrection.

Lent is a time for examining our lives and what the obstacles there may be to God's grace and instruction. Remember that God respects our free will, and doesn't 'force' His grace upon us, we cooperate. In humility, ask yourselves, what do we need to 'cleanse' from our lives to 'make room' for God's abundant grace? What false idols might we rank higher than God, even unconsciously? We know that the temple of Jesus' body was destroyed and raised. Therefore, we can trust that the same God who raised Jesus from the dead, can also cleanse and breathe new life into our hearts.

To the world it may seem foolish to place God and His commandments first in our lives, above money, power, and pleasure. St. Paul reminds us that, to unbelievers, the simple fact that - we glorify Christ, and Jesus was crucified and killed as a criminal - is foolish, at best. God, in His infinite wisdom, desired this to be the way humankind was saved. So, we proclaim with joy: "Christ has died, Christ is risen, and Christ will come again."

As we approach the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, let our simple prayer be: 'Lord, I want you to cleanse my heart to make more room for You'.

God bless you, Fr. Stan
