FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

If we could only choose a handful of verses from the Bible and try to convey what it means to be a disciple of Jesus, we would have to include a statement that we heard from Jesus in the Gospel of John. And while we have all heard it before, it is one of the most profound things ever spoken or written.

‘Amen, amen I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.’

Clearly, in one sense, Jesus is referring to Himself. He is the grain of wheat which will fall to the ground and die. And the fruits of that death will be so much more than could be expected or even imagined. Jesus died so that we could live. THAT is the Good News. We should never forget what Jesus did for us and for the entire world. One of the most important aspects of our Lenten Season is that we make sure we are always grateful for the selfless, saving acts of our Lord.

What we don't always know, believe, or understand is that this is precisely what we are called to do. We are also called to be grains of wheat, called to ‘die’, so that others might ‘live’. Maybe the difficulty we have in accepting this truth stems from our assumption that our ‘dying’ must be in dramatic and extraordinary ways. For some of us this may be, but my guess is that real and lasting fruit will primarily be produced through countless small and seemingly insignificant ‘deaths’.

Put another way, I believe in my heart that the world will likely be transformed, and we will be transformed, through trivial things that seem to be of little importance, yet things that shape, impact, and make a difference in this world in ways we can't predict or imagine.

And so, if you are ready to embrace these profound and challenging words from the mouth of Jesus, if you are ready to be a grain of wheat, if you are ready to die so that life may grow abundantly on this earth.

Refrain from the need to get even.

-Don't feel the need to win every argument.

-Go to that movie you really don't want to see (but go because your spouse does).

-Do your homework before going out to play.

-Reach out to a lonely person (even if your life is busy).

-Paint that room you have been promising to do for weeks.

-Be kind to people you really don't like.

-Give to someone in need, without passing judgement.

-Don't try to top every story with a better story of your own.

-Go to counseling for the sake of your marriage.

-You fill in the blank.

Dying, a bad thing? Not when we do it for someone else. Not when we do it for our God who has done it for us first.

May your Lenten journey continue to be fruitful.

God bless you, Fr. Stan

LIVING...as Disciples

MINISTRY

WE ARE REMEMBERED 33RD EASTER MASS

The 33rd Annual Easter Mass sponsored by the Diocesan Ministry "We Are Remembered" will be celebrated on Wednesday, April 3 at 7 pm. "We minister and welcome all who mourn the death and passing of a loved one." Monday, March 20th is the deadline to have the names of loved ones enrolled to ensure their inclusion in the Book of the Remembered and the enrollment list that will be printed in the AD Today Newspaper. We Are Remembered requests a $5 donation for each name enrolled to cover expenses. Every name submitted will be enrolled regardless of donation. "The work of the ministry is sustained by your generosity and prayerful support." To register, send the following information and checks to We Are Remembered Ministry. Include: Sponsor(s) name, donation amount, address, phone number, email, and Name(s) of the deceased.

FRIENDLY VISITORS

Please prayerfully consider volunteering to deliver gifts to our parishioners who live in assisted living or nursing home facilities and those who are homebound. Volunteers are needed for Thursday after 12 noon and Friday, March 14 & 15. Please contact Mary at 610-266-0695 ext. 208 or dirred@sercc.org if you can offer some of your precious time to deliver these gifts to our parish shut ins. Thank you.

HOLY THURSDAY – CHURCH HOPPING

All are invited. Consider bringing your family and friends along for our annual "Church Hopping" after the 7:00 p.m. Mass on Holy Thursday. It is a quiet time when Catholics are asked to stay awake and wait with Jesus just as the apostles were asked on that night in the Garden of Gethsemane. We will travel to four other parishes and pray a decade of the Sorrowful Mysteries at each church. We will return to St. Elizabeth at approximately 9:45 to pray (our fifth stop). All you need is a rosary and a prayerful heart! We will meet after Mass in front of the parish hall doors for all who are interested. Please contact Mary Spieker for more information.

LIVING STATIONS

Our 8th graders will present the Living Stations two times during this Lenten season. Please join us in St. Elizabeth of Hungary Church on: Tuesday, March 26 at 6:30 pm and Wednesday, March 27 at 9:00 am. Come and join us as we walk the path to salvation.

APOLOGIES

Last week in the bulletin we placed a photo of Fr. Potts to celebrate his 60th Ordination Anniversary. The copier toner was exceptionally low, and his photo was a grainy 'guess who image'. Here is a clearer image of Fr. Potts!
