FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Today's Gospel follows the encounter the two disciples had with the risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus, where they had recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread. Now, these same two disciples have returned to Jerusalem, to the Upper Room where the Last Supper took place. All the Apostles are hidden there, staying out of sight for fear that those who killed Jesus will soon be coming for them.

Jesus appears to them in that room and offers the peace that He alone can give. He reassures them they are seeing victory, not defeat – that He is truly risen. He is not a ghost, and they are not hallucinating. He eats with them, and then gives them a detailed recounting of how prophecies from the Hebrew Scriptures all have been fulfilled by his passion. The disciples' mission will be to go and tell others the very same truth – God's plan of salvation did not take a detour at Calvary. It was the defining moment of victory.

Jesus calls them all witnesses of these things, a point echoed by St. Peter in our reading from the Acts of the Apostles. Peter has indeed become a witness. Before the Holy Spirit came upon him in wind and fire, he, like the others, hid himself from the public eye. Now his fears are replaced by faith in the Resurrection. Peter stands publicly as the rock of Christ's church, challenging his listeners to repent, and inviting them to be baptized and share in Christ's victory.

Then and now, the resurrection of Jesus is disbelieved by some, and ignored by many. However, for those who have faith in the Lord and lean on the cross of Jesus, the Resurrection becomes an anchor that preserves our hope, especially during the darkest days of our lives. In the sacraments, Jesus takes our fears away the same way he did on the road to Emmaus and in the Upper Room. Like His disciples, we are then called to go and free others from their fears, by telling them the Good News that Christ has conquered death. Christ is risen, Alleluia!

God bless you, Fr. Stan
